Sarah J.

Kids' Chance of Michigan Scholarship Recipient

“My father was killed when I was thirteen years old in a workplace accident.

I heard about Kids' Chance my sophomore year of college when a former co-worker of my father's reached out to the organization because he thought I'd be a good candidate for the scholarship.

I have just been so grateful for this scholarship. It has definitely eased some of the burden of college costs for me – I will be graduating this time next year.

I am so thankful for and blessed by everyone at Kids' Chance, and I hope I'm making them proud as well.”
