Savannah S.

Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania Scholarship Recipient

“My name is Savannah, and I just finished my sophomore year at the University of Pittsburgh in Johnstown.

Back in 2011, my dad was working as a service technician in Florida. He was actually in a freak accident, and he didn't make it. That's been hard on our family. I wasn't going to have the opportunity to get loans, and I was really scared for a little bit that I wouldn't get to go to school.

I heard about Kids' Chance through a family friend who knew about my situation and knew there was a scholarship out there for children of injured workers.

Aside from the grief, financially, losing my dad was a burden on our family, but thankfully the Kids' Chance scholarship has helped with that.”
